About El Chupete:

Antonio Jimenez, bailaor sevillano, began dancing at an early age at flamenco festivals of Andalucia. He never received formal dance training but was guided by professional dancers and singers. Jimenez made his professional debut in El Cordobes de Barcelona and in Los Gallos of Sevilla. He performed together with Paquera de Jerez in Tokio and has shared the stage with Carmen Ledesma in the National Opera of Tokyo and also choreographed for Yoko Komatsubara. During his career, Jimenez has toured extensively as a featured soloist in Italy, Germany, Holland, Canada, Brazil, and different parts of the U.S.A. He currently tours with Noche Flamenca and is considered to be one of the finest flamenco tablaos in Spain.
